TESSERENT UPGRADED TO NEXTWAVE MSP PROGRAM PARTNER STATUS BY PALO ALTO NETWORKS

Tesseract Limited (ASX:TNT, Tesseract) is excited to announce it has been upgraded into the Palo Alto Networks (NYSE: PANW) NextWave Managed Services Program (MSP).

Due to Tesseract's rapidly growing customer base, the company has also been upgraded to be a Certified Professional Services Partner (CSP) to offer fee-based pre- and post-sales professional services that significantly enhance revenue potential.

Only a very limited group of Managed Security Service Providers (MSSPs) in Australia are part of the program, which has stringent requirements based on sales volume, certification of security engineers and technical expertise require of trusted security advisers.

Julian Challingsworth, CEO of Tesseract commented "Palo Alto Networks only invites select organisations to join the NextWave MSP Program. They demand MSSPs have the capabilities to deliver scalable, reliable, disruptive and comprehensive value-added managed security services. Tesseract is honoured to be chosen as one of the few Australian companies in the global program."

Palo Alto Networks is one of the world's leading next-generation cybersecurity companies. Their extensive ecosystem of next-generation security solutions protect tens of thousands of enterprises, governments, and service providers from cyber threats across clouds, networks, and mobile devices.
